CAUSE

On December 17, 2007, Mr. Chambers appeared in the Hamilton County Municipal Court on four counts of Child Endangerment under Docket #: 07/CRB/42163A,B,C,D. Counts B, C, and D were dismissed. The offender pled guilty and was found guilty of the amended charge of Disorderly Conduct under Count A and was fined $50. This conviction occurred only three months after a conviction for Disorderly Conduct in the above court under Docket #: 07/CRB/34071 on September 6, 2007.

On January 14, 2008, this officer met with Mr. Chambers to discuss the proposed modification. This officer explained his rights to counsel and a modification hearing in detail. Chambers stated he understood his rights completely, and wanted to waive those rights because he was in agreement with the addition of the condition. He then signed the waiver form.

Mr. Chambers' attorney, Mr. Richard Smith Monahan, Esquire, advised the probation officer that he had no objection to the proposed modification.

Based on these factors, this officer respectfully recommends the Court grant the proposed modification.

Respectfully submitted,

by

By "assistance of counsel" I understand that I have the right to be represented at the hearing by counsel of my own choosing if I am able to retain counsel. I also understand I have the right to contact an attorney prior to signing this waiver.

I hereby knowingly and voluntarily waive my right to consult an attorney before signing this waiver and I knowingly and voluntarily waive my statutory right to a hearing and to assistance of counsel. I also agree to the following modification of my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or to the proposed extension of my term of supervision:

That the conditions of supervised release be amended to include the addition of a special condition that requires Mr. Chambers to serve a 90 day term of electronically monitored home confinement. The daily cost of electronic monitoring shall be waived due to the defendant's financial situation.
